Description

This very elegant Edwardian table has an oval top and has four canted corners and has boxwood cross banding, with boxwood inlaid just around the cross banding. The table has a very nice shell motif in the centre of the top. Below the top the table has four cabriole legs which are connected by a lower tier. The lower tier and the legs have the added feature of further boxwood inlay. Free delivery on mainland England and Wales all other areas please ask for a quote.
